

NSW GOLFING magic

Scone Golf Course

WHETHER you choose the Hunter Valley, Newcastle or Port Stephens, you will have hit on a region rich in golfing treasures. Each region can boast numerous top-quality golf courses and venues and over the next few pages we feature a selection of the finest in these areas.

For golfers who are easily distracted, there are magnificent beaches and wineries and mountains further inland.

There's plenty to see and do, so take your time to explore and make sure you acquaint yourself with the locals, who are always friendly and go out of their way to make your golfing holiday worthwhile. There's also a wide selection of comfortable accommodation.

The entire region really is a one-stop golfing playground.

So, what are you waiting for; isn't it time to get acquainted, or re-acquainted, with some terrific layouts in New South Wales?

SCONE GOLF COURSE

THE redeveloped Scone Golf Course was officially opened in May 2019 and has gained a reputation as one of the premier layouts in the Hunter Valley.

Situated in the 'Horse Capital of Australia', Scone NSW, the new $4 million facility was constructed as a result of the New England Highway Bypass of the Scone township dissecting part of the old golf course.

Works were completed by golf course contractor McMahons Pty Ltd with Pacific Coast Design responsible for the detailed design of the revised layout. All playing surfaces have been rebuilt, including tees and their surrounds, greens and their surrounds, fairways and short roughs. The revised course is a 9-hole (18 tees) par-72 measuring 6,044m and features manicured kikuyu fairways and USGA specified tees and bent grass greens. A fully automated irrigation system ensures all playing surfaces can be irrigated all year round.

The course has natural features like gullies and mature Red River Gums, as well as the thousands of plants that have been put in, which has improved the diversity and ecology of the site.

Play is open to the general public every day with the exception of member competition block times on Saturdays from 8:00am to 3:00pm. Thursday mornings – Ladies 18 hole competition.

Scone Golf Course has already played host to a Hunter River District Golf Association 36-hole event. More recently, the HRDGA Ladies Golf Playoff Day was held and was a resounding success with a number of visitors vowing to return.

East's Leisure and Golf Club

EASTS LEISURE AND GOLF CLUB

EASTS Leisure and Golf Club have issued an open invitation to golfers planning their next golf trip after lockdown.

"We would love to have you at East's," is the club's message.

Nestled in the heart of the beautiful Hunter Valley, East's Leisure and Golf provides the perfect setting for Golfers of all levels.

The golf course is centrally located and within easy reach of The Hunter Valley vineyards, Newcastle and Port Stephens making it a must see on your next golfing holiday to shake off the lockdown blues.

Established on June 12, 1899, the golf course is Australia's 14th-oldest.

Whilst the course has been extensively developed over the past 100 years, the club has retained its rich history with each hole telling a story.

Water hazards are in play on eight of the tree-lined holes and a strategically placed dam on the second hole will worry some players.

The par-3 13th is well known with locals with players needing to place their shot on an undulating green over a former quarry.

The addition of a state-of-the-art course irrigation system allows for play year round and the golf cart paths and architecturally-designed greens complete the resort-style feel.

East's has a modern clubhouse, well-appointed pro shop and the award-winning The Valley Restaurant makes the club a must-visit destination when in the Hunter Valley.

The club understanding the need to cater to all golfers in this changing environment and East's offers membership from as little at $205.

Richard Mercer Golf Academy

NAMED as one of "50 Great Australian Golf Coaches 2016" by Australian Golf Digest, Richard Mercer is the Head Golf Professional at The Vintage Golf Club in the heart of The Hunter Valley. Richard Mercer Golf offers a state-of-the-art facility, including an indoor/outdoor hitting bay, video lessons and FlightScope launch monitor analysis. Golf lessons and schools are available for all levels of golfer, from Beginners/Juniors through to Tour Professionals.

A great way to maximise your game and enjoyment are one-, two- and three-day golf schools at The Richard Mercer Golf Academy (with accommodation packages at the 5-star Chateau Elan). Packages and lessons are tailored to each individual and his/her specific needs on the course.

Richard's relaxed and fun approach to golf can help you play the best game of your life. In the words of one student: "After my golf school with Richard at The Vintage I am now playing better and enjoying it more than I ever have. His style of teaching is relaxed and encouraging and his ability to diagnose swing faults is great. His approach to teaching golf goes beyond technique to include ideas about course management and the important area of mental skills. I highly recommend lessons and golf schools with Richard."

A member of the PGA of Australia since 1978, Richard played on the Australian, European and Asian Tours (including qualifying and playing in the 1984 British Open at St. Andrews). Since leaving the Tour, Richard has been Head Golf Professional at several golf clubs throughout NSW and has designed and built golf courses in the Hunter Valley (Hunter Valley Golf and Country Club) and Harrington Waters. He has been the Head Golf Professional at The Vintage Golf Club for 14 years.

From $75.00 for ½ hour lesson, or $435.00 per person for a one day golf school.

Pacific Dunes

PACIFIC DUNES

EARNING its place in the Top 100 courses Australia-wide, Pacific Dunes, designed by James Wilcher and located in the picturesque Port Stephens region, just gets better with age. The natural vegetation on the front nine paints the perfect backdrop as it winds its way through woodlands that make the playing arena feel enclosed and rewards accuracy over bravado. In contrast, the far more open back nine is spacious but water-laden, with hazards in play near enough to every hole. The opportunities for rewards are frequent, accompanied by a commensurate level of risk.

The $180 master-planned golf course residential estate is complete with not only a world-class 18-hole golf course but also offers golfers practice facilities including a full-sized putting and chipping green and practice nets.

The newly-completed, state-of-the art, environmentally-friendly $3 million clubhouse offers golfers and visitors alike a dining experience like no other at The Greenhouse Eatery, taking advantage at every point of the stunning golf course.

Pacific Dunes is located only 25 minutes from Newcastle, 20 minutes from the golden beaches of Port Stephens and only two hours' drive from Sydney.

Catering for the single golfer or large social and corporate groups, you won't be disappointed in what is one of NSW's finest public access courses.

Pacific Dunes is excited to announce its new promotional rates running from April to August. Only $65 Monday to Thursday or $75 Friday to Sunday for golf and cart hire. Tee times available 7 days a week with competition days running from Wednesday to Sunday.

The best 19th Hole just got better!

Harrigans Pub manager Chris Codd giving Golf To The Max Golf Pro Kieran McMahon a "Free Drop" in the brand new bar area

Harrigan's
HUNTER VALLEY

"Harrigans had great atmosphere all-round! Excellent steaks whilst we watched the footy on the big screen and some of the boys had a punt in the sports bar.

We also loved the fantastic new outdoor area with an awesome cover band to keep us entertained. The best part was when any of us wanted to retire our cosy motel room was a short stumble away!"
