Southeast Asia

FROM established courses to exciting new designs, in recognised golfing destinations and now in countries where the game is growing and looking to attract players from all around the world.

Golf in southeast Asia is booming and everyone is invited to visit and bring the clubs, to enjoy unique golfing experiences.

Read about a Sir Nick Faldo design in Cambodia, the world-class Sentosa Golf Course in Singapore, the golfing wonders of Thailand, organised tours to all parts, and much more, in this Inside Golf, Golfing Southeast Asia, special feature.

Sir Nick Faldo growing the game in Cambodia

■ The spectacular Sir Nick Faldo designed Vattanac Golf course in Cambodia.

IN focusing his time on his global design firm, Sir Nick Faldo has officially opened Vattanac Golf Resort, a 36-hole Faldo Design facility in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

The West Course was named “Best Golf Course” in Cambodia at both the 2022 and 2023 World Golf Awards, while the East Course was afforded the same honour in 2020, the international recognition is a testament to the quality of golf course design being brought to fruition by Sir Nick and his team in South East Asia in recent years.

“I have always looked at each site as a blank slate,” Faldo explained. “I envisioned a true Faldo Design course to reflect the natural surroundings, giving golfers a sense of place and have always stived to incorporate and protect the local culture.

Vattanac Golf Resort is like no other course in the world, with features throughout both courses showcasing and drawing inspiration from the ancient Khmer temples. When you play this course you have no doubt you are in Cambodia,” Faldo added.

Faldo has been coming to the Cambodia for over 15 years, with his first design at Angkor Golf Resort in Siem Reap opening in 2008. Angkor Golf Resort has been a host venue for the Handa Faldo Cambodian Classic on the Asian Tour as well as the Faldo Series global junior golf tour that provides an equal opportunity platform for girls and boys seeking a pathway to elite professional golf.

As Faldo continues to be a trailblazer in creating new golf markets, his formula of designing new courses and introducing junior golf programs aimed at crafting the champions of tomorrow has a proven track record for success since the mid-1990s.

“I never saw the point in simply building golf courses in new regions if there was no opportunity to introduce the game to the next generation,” he said.

“The Faldo Brand is not just about designing courses, it is about expanding the game of golf in a sustainable manner, so it is only reasonable to provide opportunities to the clubs and the community to create junior and amateur pathways once the course is operational.”

Amora Beach Resort Phuket

A 5-Star lifestyle resort

AFTER first opening its doors in 1999 as a four-star hotel facility, Amora Beach Resort Phuket has undergone an extensive refurbishment, costing some US$14 million, as part of its repositioning into a five-star modern lifestyle resort.

Located on a private 80m stretch on Bang Tao Beach, the recently re-opened and newly built resort now serves as the flagship tourist destination in Thailand for the Amora Hotels & Resorts group.

In addition to renovated rooms and suites across 13 categories, the Amora Beach resort has introduced the new-concept Nora Beach Club, the Amora Wellness Centre with massage and fitness facilities, Isla restaurant, a kids' club, two pools, a beachfront events lawn, the Amora Grand Ballroom and four meeting rooms.

"With strong demand returning, the repositioning of Amora Beach Resort Phuket is a timely one, considering the Tourism Authority of Thailand's re-focus on luxury tourism and new market opportunities, particularly to islands such as Phuket," Amora Hotels & Resorts' Owner/Director Chaowaphat Siriphatrawan, said.

The resort's rooms, each with a private balcony or terrace with views of either landscaped gardens, glistening pools or the Andaman Sea, have been refurbished in a contemporary style.

Guests have a wide variety of room types to choose from, including deluxe family rooms with additional bunk beds for children. Three suite types ranging from 52 sqm to 144 sqm are also available, while a thoughtfully curated suite of facilities caters to the needs of different guest profiles.

From quiet sophistication and holistic mindfulness to family adventures and culinary appreciation, guests will be able to enjoy their stay in an environment that fits with their comfort zone.

Amongst the key highlights is the new-concept Nora Beach Club, for guests who want to dine and chat, drink and chill, or dance and enjoy live music, the kids' club has been conceptualised for engaging playtime on different levels, including a play zone for the active ones, a craft zone for young artists to flex their skills and a multimedia zone to nurture young minds with edutainment, while a packed programme of beach activities, sports-related classes, movies, and more, will keep the children happy and busy.

The Amora Wellness centre beckons with soothing spa treatments, rejuvenating massages or energising fitness workouts, the Isla offers all-day dining with a diverse menu of Western and Asian cuisines and a live-cooking station, with the Lobby Lounge offering a patisserie menu and a casual chic setting for teatime conversations.

Amora Beach Resort Phuket's wedding and MICE facilities are also an important component of its refurbishment, with the beachfront location on the pristine Bang Tao Beach lending itself as a desirable destination for weddings and incentive travel groups. The new beachfront events lawn is specifically designed for those special moments. Astra is another venue that offers an ambient rooftop space overlooking the Andaman Sea and the Amora Grand Ballroom can host up to 400 guests, and event organisers may also utilise an additional 700 sqm from four meeting rooms, which includes 330 sqm of configurable space.

Great golf in The Land of Smiles

JOHAN Dunphy's 13-day golf tour of Thailand is perfect for the passionate golfer.

Enjoy rounds of golf on five of Thailand's most beautiful and spectacular golf courses and experience the tropical climate, mouth-watering food and friendly people in The Land of Smiles from August 13-25, 2024.

Thoroughly researched by your host, the destination and courses have been carefully selected to create a truly memorable holiday.

The golf courses:

Majestic Creek is a 27-hole gem lying in beautiful countryside just 25 minutes outside of the Royal town of Hua Hin. Recent renovations and the re-laying of greens have transformed this sleeping giant into one of the best golfing experiences in this renowned golfing area.

The cooling ocean breeze at Sea Pines Golf Club can be a blessing on hot days but a curse when it picks up on the holes closer to the sea, turning the relatively easy play into some challenging game. The course's namesake pine trees are dotted along the edge of the beach and beyond them is nothing but sand, clean, warm water and the distant islands in the Gulf of Thailand.

The course is quite flat but with plenty of water to keep you on your toes, so be prepared to lose a ball or two. The new greens run slow but true, and the last three holes are among the most memorable in Hua Hin.

Jack Nicklaus designed all 27 holes at Springfield Royal Golf Resort at Cha-am. The Mountain (A) and Lake (B) nines make up the first-rate 18-hole configuration. Springfield has been designed to meet the high demands of a championship golf course and yet it remains an enjoyable challenge for golfers of all standards.

Imperial Lake View Golf Resort offers 36 holes in one of the most scenic and pleasant areas in Hua Hin. The course features small streams and a large lake dividing it in two. Look out for the 14th hole with its tee box on a small island and the green on another island 210 yards away – all surrounded by water.

The award-winning Banyan Golf Resort is a world-class championship golf and dining facility that has been designed to be enjoyed by players of all levels. The unique contemporary Thai-style designed clubhouse features luxurious changing rooms, exclusive club suite accommodation and wonderful dining experiences.

Note: There are limited spots available so book early.
